

A DICTIONARY OF ASMĀ' AND SIFĀT UN-NABĪ ﷺ
from: DALĀ'IL UL-KHAYRĀT of: IMĀM AL-JAZŪLĪ ﷺ

INTRODUCTION

All Praise is for Allah ﷻ, Lord and Sustainer of all the worlds, for giving us the hidāya to write this book. May Allah ﷻ shower perpetual peace and blessings upon His most beloved creation, Sayyidunā Muḥammad ﷺ, and on his Family, his Companions, and those that follow him in excellence until the Promised Day.

This book consists of three main parts:

- (a) The 99 Asmā' Allāh ul-Ḥusnā,
- (b) The 201 Asmā' un-Nabī ﷺ that appear prior to the text of Dalā'il ul-Khayrāt, and
- (c) A Dictionary of 401 Asmā' and Sifāt un-Nabī ﷺ that we have compiled.

This Dictionary consists of:

- (i) The Asmā' un-Nabī ﷺ that appear both in the text of the Dalā'il as well as in the list of 201. We have marked these in the Dictionary with an asterisk.
- (ii) The additional Asmā' and Sifāt un-Nabī ﷺ that appear only in the text of the Dalā'il but not in the list of 201. These have not been marked with an asterisk.
- (iii) The Asmā' un-Nabī ﷺ that are only in the list of 201 but do not occur in the text. These have been shown as: from 201 Asma' un-Nabi.

This dictionary of Asmā' and Sifāt un-Nabī ﷺ is not exhaustive. A total of 401 Asmā' and Sifāt un-Nabī ﷺ have been selected. The entries in this dictionary are arranged in alphabetical order in accordance with the Arabic language. However, if the singular and plural forms of the same word appear one after the other, the singular form has been placed first, regardless of the alphabetical order.

ASH-SHUKR AND DU‘Ā’

We are thankful to Allāh ﷻ, Lord and Sustainer of all the worlds, for granting us the ability to accomplish this task through His Grace and Mercy. We are also thankful to our Beloved Holy Prophet Muhammad ﷺ, Khayr(u) Khalqillāh (the best of Allah’s creation), whom Allah created and fashioned with these beautiful special distinguishing Sifāt, and upon whom Allah bestowed these blessed Asmā’, and who brought us the religion of Islam.

We are grateful to our Mashā’ikh (naf’anAllāhu bihim) for their Du‘ā’, gazes, and spiritual blessings. Last but not least, we are also grateful to our parents for their Du‘ā’, support, and encouragement. For those of our loved ones who have passed ahead, may Allah ﷻ raise their ranks and enlighten their places of rest, and for those of them who are still physically with us, may Allah ﷻ grant them a long and healthy life in His obedience. Āmīn.

Du‘ā’: O Allāh! Bestow upon us Your love, the love of Your Habīb, Sayyidunā Muhammad ﷺ, the love of the Ahlu’l Bayt and the Sahābah ﷺ, the love of Your Awliyā’, naf’anAllāhu bihim, and the love of the Sālihīn (the pious).

Allāhumma salli ‘alā Sayyidinā Muhammadin wa ‘alā Ālihī wa Sahbihī wa sallim

O Allah! Bestow blessings and peace upon our Master, Prophet Muhammad, and on his Family and Companions.

Compiled By: Students of Madrasa al-Hidāya (Adult Class).

Hāfīz Usman Munawwar, Hāfīz Hamid Syed, Kassim Kasmani, Ahmed Syed, Anwaar Ahmed, Abid Syed, Shahbaz Ahmed.

Also Participated to Provide Moral Support:

Syed Hamid Yazdani, Qari Ataullah.

Under the Supervision of:

Ustādh Siddiq Osman Noormuhammad

www.iqra.net
www.madrasahidaya.net
Rajab 1435 / May 2014
Toronto, Canada